Govt. Will Compensate On Oats, Barley Sales

OTTAWA, July 9. (CP)—Trade Minister Howe today announced the federal government will pay cents a bushel on oats and 1 cent a bushel on barley delivered and sold by western producers between Aug. 1, 1947 and last Oct. 31, when price ceilings on these grains were removed.

The money will go directly to all farmers who sold coarse grains during that period, whether or not they already have been reimbursed by the elevator companies to which they delivered the grain. While the government payment is being made by the Canadian Wheat Board, the board did not enter into the actual sale and purchase of the grain.

The payments will compensate farmers who sold their grain at the prevailing price before the ceilings were lifted.

Rail Wage Talks Still Deadlocked

No Basis For Resumption Of Negotiations

OTTAWA, July 9. (CP)—Opening talks in the government's final attempt to settle the railway wage dispute today failed to bring about resumption of direct negotiations between the railways and 18 international unions.

After 1 1/2 hours of discussion with Labor Minister Mitchell, a spokesman for the unions said negotiations were no further advanced today when there was a complete breakdown of union-company negotiations. The representatives of the international group representing 12,000 employees adjourned the opening conference late today and will meet here again tomorrow.

STILL IN SESSION

As they left the minister, representatives of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees and other transport workers (CIR) were still in session with Mr. Mitchell.

However, at this point the CIR had not shown any indication that it planned to resume direct negotiations with the railways.

During today's conference unions and company representatives met briefly together to hear an opening statement by the labor minister. After that the company officials and the two union groups met individually in separate conference rooms.

Frank H. Hall, chairman of the international unions' negotiating committee, said later that Mr. Mitchell did not make any specific proposal on behalf of the government.

STILL HOLDING OUT

He added that at this time his side still was holding out for a 28-cent-an-hour increase as against the 16-cent increase being offered by the railways. He said the international unions had not yet decided to accept the offer.

At present all union-company communication was being conducted through the minister.

Mr. Hall said the unions' July 15 strike call still stood. He said the railways are going to stop running.

Monday's day of gloom in film news was read in the record.

Lewis Likely To Call Off Strike

Labor Experts Predict Mine Chief Won't Risk Court Action

By Charles H. Herrold
WASHINGTON, July 9.—(CP)—Government labor experts predicted today that John L. Lewis will call off the "captive" coal mine strike, if ordered, rather than risk another fine for contempt of court.

The mine chief was expected to appear before federal Judge T. Alan Goldborough Wednesday to show why he should not be ordered to work in the coal mines, which have been out of production for 100 days in a union shop dispute which the government claims will "seriously curtail" steel production.

MAY GIVE IN
Lewis was expected to challenge the constitutionality of the Taft-Hartley law's union shop restrictions. But if Judge Goldborough rules against him, government sources said, Lewis probably will give in.

Goldborough was the judge who has fined Lewis and his United Mine Workers a total of $10,000 within the past two years for ignoring court orders.

The judge issued his "show cause" order against Lewis and his union last year after the request of Robert N. Taft, U.S. senator, president of the National Labor Relations Board, accused Lewis and the Mine Workers of violating the Taft-Hartley law by insisting on a union shop clause in their 1938 contract without the formality of a rank-and-file election.

Most commercial coal producers signed the contract, despite the union shop provision. Their mines are now operating. But the union shop clause in the contract is now being challenged by the government, which says it will force all employers to join the union after they have worked a certain length of time.

Under the strike law, Lewis said, it will cause "immediate, substantial and irreparable injury to the nation."

As long as the Hutterites comply with the law, mining can be done to prevent their purchase of additional land holdings in Alberta, the premier said.

4,000 IN PROVINCE
There are about 4,000 Hutterites in the province and a majority of them reside in southern Alberta, near Lethbridge.

Although the legislation governing Hutterite settlement provides priority for the Veterans' Land Act department and individual veterans in purchases Hutterites are said to be purchasing veterans in prices offered.

2nd Suicide Note Probed At Hearing

a suicide, but that it was desired to read the motive and the motive was the motive.

After the deposition was read, Harrison was called to the stand. He reiterated he knew of no second note.

Later at the hearing Miss Landie said, Mrs. Fannie May Bollen, testified that after Harrison took her to the actress' second bedroom he went to a table and found a note.

He cried "Oh darling, why did you do it, why did you do it," she testified.

CANT IDENTIFY NOTE
At this point deputy coroner Nance showed Mrs. Bollen the note. She said she did not know it.

She told me on the note it said for me to say anything and to take care of the cat, to see that the cat was taken to the veterinarian and its leg fixed."

Mrs. Watson, the next witness, said someone, she didn't know who, handed her a note at the Landie home.

ADDRESSED TO NO ONE
"It was not addressed to anyone," Mrs. Watson said. "It just said 'Please take this to the cat to the vet.' There was nothing in the note about not telling anybody. It just told me that as I would tell my own servant."

Mrs. Watson said she gave the note back to someone, she didn't know who, and hasn't seen it since.

Harrison found the body of the 29-year-old film beauty Monday morning in the bathroom floor at her Riviera home. He had died with his Sunday night and apparently was the last to see her alive.

HAD ASSETS
Coroner's chemist R. J. Abernathy confirmed reports that Miss Landie died of an overdose of sleeping powder. He said he found five milligrams of the drug in the system. The chemist also said tests showed 0.12 per cent of alcohol. He said 0.12 per cent was sufficient for intoxication.

The actress' lawyer, Jerry Glick, said he did not know who handed her a note at the Landie home.

Liberals in Manitoba Undecided on Support

WINNIPEG, July 9.—(CP)—The Manitoba Liberal Progressive Association executive said in a statement today that no decision has been made to support any contender for the national party leadership at next month's Ottawa convention.

The statement followed a meeting last night at which the proposed candidates of Premier Stuart Legg for the leadership were expected to have been discussed.

The executive said that "contrary to expectations raised by certain recent newspaper articles there was no decision made to support any contender for the Liberal leadership, the constitution of the association and permitting any such support being offered."

The delegates to the national Liberal convention to be held at Ottawa Aug. 27 have been elected by their own constituencies and cannot be "instructed or advised" by the association as to the person for whom they should cast their ballots at the convention.

A source close to the association said last night, however, that the executive's stand should "in no way" be interpreted as an indication the group does not approve of Mr. Legg as a possible candidate.

Mr. Carson, meanwhile, has refused to comment on rumors he will allow his name to stand at the

5,000 Broadcasts Is CFRN's Record

Community Station Has Made Remarkable Progress

By Jack DeLong

Tonight at midnight Edmonton's home-owned radio station CFRN will have been "talking" for 5,000 days and nights.

It was on November 1, 1934, that G. R. A. "Dick" Rice, who had been wireless operator in the British Navy during the First World War, went on the air with CFRN's first program.

Rice had just seven employees at that time, and his tiny broadcasting transmitter had only 100 watts power.

Today there are more than 50 persons employed by the station and the power is 5,000 watts.

CFRN started 14 years ago with just 10 commercial program sponsors.

CBC OUTLET

Today it has hundreds of programs and is the official outlet for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation in Edmonton.

The original 100-watt transmitter served listeners living within a five-mile radius of Edmonton only.

Today the big 5,000-watt transmitter "blankets" the province and beyond.

In addition to entertainment, international, national and local CFRN has 17 broadcasts each day of world and local news events with The Edmonton Bulletin, British United Press and Canadian Press supplying up-to-the-minute coverage.

INDIAN NAME

Organized as the Sunwapta Broadcasting Co. Ltd. the Edmonton radio station selected this name because it means "radiating waves" in an Indian tongue.

First tiny studio was in the Birk's building with the transmitter in the old Beulah Mission building at 1527 street and 90 avenue.

In 1935 the studios were moved to their present location in the CPH building.

The year 1941 was an important milestone in the progress of CFRN transmitter power being increased in that year to 1,000 watts.

On March 1, 1941 the present 5,000-watt transmitter was installed in a new building, three miles west of the city limits, on the Jasper Highway.

Harry Nielson, associated with Rice in the establishment of CFRN in 1934, retired in 1945.

GAMBLER

Pioneer of pioneers in radio broadcasting in Edmonton, president Rice set up CICA in 1922 in the days when radio was considered a passing fad attracting only sceptics and cranks.

Crystal sets were the vogue among early radio enthusiasts.

Widely recognized throughout the continent in the field of radio engineering, Rice served as president of the Canadian Association of Broadcasters.

Several of his early associates at CFRN are still with Rice. These include Frank Makepeace, station engineer, and the J. "Doc" Hopp, assistant manager; Miss Dorothy Atkinson, secretary; George Duffield, broadcast manager; MacDonald Holmes, manager retail sales; Helen Ramsey, continuity department; Jerry Forbes, writer-producer; and Gordon Williamson, sports announcer.

G. R. A. "DICK" RICE
... President.

SERVE CITY

A primary objective of CFRN, as stated by its president and founder, is to serve Edmonton and north-central Alberta, encourage the development of home radio talent, and encourage better community spirit and racial good will.

The station is proud of its record in donating $20,000 in station time to worthy causes such as Red Cross, cancer campaigns and drives to aid crippled children.

The recent "Search for Talent" campaign, sponsored jointly by CFRN and the Association of Canadian Travelers, Edmonton Club, netted $25,000 in aid of crippled children in the province.

CFRN, Edmonton's "friendly station", marches on.

Stiff Penalties Provided In Transit System Bylaw

Stiff penalties are provided in a bylaw designed to regulate the conduct of passengers using vehicles of the Edmonton Transit System. Bylaws committee of city council Thursday recommended passage of the legislation.

The bylaw is designed to ensure as far as possible the safety, comfort and convenience of passengers, and to protect vehicles and equipment from damage.

It provides for penalties ranging from $2 to $100.

It prohibits use of profane, abusive or foul language in transit system vehicles. Disorderly conduct also is outlawed, and passengers will not be permitted to annoy, interfere with or inconvenience any other person travelling on the system.

Smoking also is prohibited. Opening of any entrance or exit door is prohibited except in emergency circumstances requiring quick exit for safety reasons.

Interference with any bolt or door fastening, interference with the door closing mechanism, preventing the door closing mechanism from operating so as to permit any person to enter buses or street cars is prohibited under the bylaw.

This section has been placed in the act to stop a practice that has become prevalent—that of passengers entering the centre door of the vehicle and thus evading payment of fare.

Persons refusing to pay the fare when demanded by the operator, or refusing to leave the vehicle when requested shall on summary conviction be liable to a fine of not less than $2 and not more than $10.

The usual clauses prohibiting obstruction of impeding of transit system officials in the execution of their duty are included.

Animals barred

Dogs and other animals are prohibited from travelling on the system.

Police officers and transit system officials may demand the name, address and occupation of any person found committing a breach of the bylaw or of any regulation of the provincial board of health prohibiting spitting within any public passenger transportation vehicle.

Refusal to give such information, or giving false information will, in addition to fines prescribed under the bylaw, be the removal of the vehicle.

The Hummel locomotive will not ignite inflammable gases because of its special construction. Exhaust fumes go through an apparatus that eliminates noxious gases.

Although the Adaptic diesel is being operated on an experimental basis at present, results have been so encouraging that several mines have made application for installation.

Present underground power, compressed air and storage battery locomotives, haven't the same high efficiency as diesel.

Safety factor

Safety factor of the new underground diesel locomotives is greater, too, Mr. Crawford said.

This new diesel, operation of which is described as "very satisfactory," is a Hummel 50 horsepower locomotive.

The Adaptic diesel is strictly experimental, said mines inspector Crawford.

Officials of the provincial mines branch, and scientists from the University of Alberta branch of the national research council, are checking its operation closely.

Three permits have been issued to other Alberta coal mines for installation of the new type of diesel locomotive.

The new diesel cannot be mass-produced.

It is manufactured in England and is checked by British experimental stations and heard of trade for use in gaseous mines.

"Introduction of these machines to Alberta can't be done on blanket authority, but on a basis of local mine conditions," said Mr. Crawford.

Sell All City Owned Lots

No matter how many city-owned lots are disposed of this year, the number will not be large enough until every last lot is off the city's hands.

Sales of this property are unusually large this year. It was expected that $500,000 worth would be sold in 1948. But up to the end of June sales had totalled $365,670 as compared with $348,061 for the same period in 1947.

June sales this year totalled $125,939 compared to $73,217 in June last year.

This acceleration in the sale of city-owned property indicates a praiseworthy burst of enterprise on the part of those who have the matter in charge. But it also indicates a more active buying market. More people are prepared to build.

What is needed is an active and all-out campaign to put every city lot into practical use.

This is desirable, not only from the standpoint of making all this property produce revenue to the city, but from the standpoint of filling up those vacant spaces in the city which increase the cost of public services.

For instance, the cost of transportation, the cost of water and electric power are appreciably boosted when lines have to pass through dead areas that yield no revenue.

Indeed, one of the greatest handicaps to economical city administration in Edmonton are these great gaps that lie dead and idle between the more densely populated sections of the city.

The filling in of these gaps is a major civic necessity.

That is why it is urgently important that all city-held lots be sold as rapidly as possible.

To that end, the lowest bargain prices should prevail. In some instances, it would be far cheaper to give it away than to allow it to impede even and consolidated growth in Edmonton.

British Columbia Flood Relief

The minimum objective of Edmonton's fund for assisting in the rehabilitation of British Columbia's flood victims is $35,000. Up to the present time only a little more than $10,000 has been contributed.

Several types of entertainments have been planned to swell this fund. All should be supported.

But the chance of the general public to donate in the easiest and simplest way come tomorrow when taggers will solicit gifts of cash on Edmonton's streets.

Ordinarily, tag days, as both the public and the city have discovered, can be unmitigated nuisances.

Speeding Up the Hotel

City officials appear to have done an expedition job of eliminating difficulties in the way of the projected new 540-room hotel in Edmonton.

Those who appreciate the value of tourist business will be gratified to learn that construction work is expected to begin very shortly.

A survey of the site has been completed and the consent of the hotel company has been secured to the use of some of the property for the purpose of widening 99 street from 50 to 66 feet. The city now controls all land necessary to the street-widening project.

This hotel, as The Bulletin has pointed out many times, is of vital importance to Edmonton because this city's contact with the outside world is dependent upon our ability to provide accommodations for visitors.

The tourist traffic, of course, depends entirely upon Edmonton's capacity for receiving tourists the facilities they require for a pleasant stay.

And even the normal flow of business travel can be seriously impeded if Edmonton's present hotel accommodation of 1,600 rooms is not substantially enlarged.

New money, new business, new industries all depend upon making it easy for investors to stay in Edmonton and be pleased with Edmonton.

The manner in which the hotel arrangements have been speeded up is worth a great deal to this city.

All funds collected for this purpose in Edmonton will be forwarded to the Vancouver board of trade and administered by the Canadian Red Cross.

"What are your tolerances on this job?" he asked a man at a table.

"One five-thousandths of an inch," replied the workman.

The figure conveyed little to the editor. He asked, "How fine is that?"

By Dorothy Thompson

To Sovereignty Exists In Russian Satellites

Nine months ago, in a two-part article titled "On Having a Revolution by the Tail," I outlined the reasons why what has happened in Yugoslavia was bound in the nature of things—to happen.

It is the course of the Soviet Union's policy in the Balkans, and especially in the East-European states, to establish world hegemony by the use of the national Communist parties.

I pointed out THOMPSON that there has been no unbroken continuity of interpretation in Marxist-Leninist ideology. The history of the Soviet Union itself has been a history of bloody errors and purges; and that the claim of the national interest of other countries with the national interests of the Soviet state was unworkable.

In the articles I wrote in October, 1947, I even predicted the emergence in the European part of the world of a "new world" in the East-European states with Western satellites, and not with the Soviet Union; and that although the Marshall plan is weak, the Soviet plan is a cradle. If Marshall Tito and his administration can survive the Russian attack, they will be not less but more popular with their own people, and if they do the repercussions will rebound throughout all Europe—including the eastern states.

Exits For Prosecution

Probably few Americans outside New York will have seen the opportunity to read the full text of the Cominform denunciation of Tito and even fewer will understand its peculiar veiled and direct threats. But it is not the promulgation of a bureau of information. This is the old ECCE (Executive Committee of the Communist International) speaking through the control commission the prosecutive organ of the international. So let us call the Comintern by its right name.

Secondly, it is clear that international economic conditions in Yugoslavia are serious. In such cases it is never the Communist line that is followed, but always the ideological device of the same leader, whose head must be kept.

Thirdly, although in the United Nations the Russian "speak" of the "average rights" of independent states, the Cominform document reveals that the Soviet Union is not a "bourgeois" state.

Not that I am sympathetic with Tito. He himself has performed the same sort of "Balkan" law far from the arm of the party prosecutive reach. To the head of a "sovereign" state, represented in the UN? If so, where is the sovereignty?

But for ourselves: Seize the moment! Mobilize more hombers and Mrs. Jones have borrowed so many things from me that I am sure you will find it makes me feel quite homberish.

A Courthouse reader sends along an "open letter" to the column, which appeared in the newspaper there over the signature "Thompson." It deals with some time ago and says:

"I understand that every policeman in Seattle carries a book recording the names of those who have been handed out to jail-walkers. This is another thing that the police have never before their heads about."

"Who, who drives a heavy truck for a living, also puts in a name in the book. The traffic light is augmented in good-the writes. 'The city can't really afford to have a traffic light. But you might also put out that a full-time policeman should be assigned to appear in court in the morning. The traffic light should be changed. Every day I see officers turn a blind eye to red lights. I think those two cases are behind a lot of it.'"

Lead Events

At Stampede

CALGARY, July 9. — (CP) — United States cowboys roared out in front in the 1948 Calgary Stampede championships race yesterday sweeping to top positions in three major competitions.

Gene Pruitt of Yakima, Wash., buck Wyatt of Omaha, Neb., and Ted Coffey, Burbank, Calif., pocketed first-place prizes in the second round of saddle bronc riding, bull riding and calf roping, respectively. Americans swept all six awards in the latter event.

Frank Duce of Cardston, Alta., and Will Geritt of Black Diamond, Alta., kept Canadians hopes alive in the bronc riding and bull riding, respectively, by taking second place honors.

FINALS START TODAY

Third and final round of the events will start today with points garnered in each go-round counting towards the North American championship awards.

Coffey thrilled a capacity crowd attending the fourth day of the six-day stampede as he continued to set the pace in the calf roping competition. He hogtied his calf in 18 1/5 seconds to nose out Dun Lewis of Carlsbad, N.M., by 1/5 of a second. Bob Galsman, Waterford, Calif., and F. C. Slaver, Tazewell, N.M., tied for third place a full second behind Coffey.

The Burbank, Calif., rope artist won the first go-round in 17 3/5 seconds.

JUST OFF RECORD

For the second straight day a cowboy came within 1/5 of a second of tying the world's steer roping record when Elliott Alboum of Los Angeles, N.M., dived over the horns of a straight-running Longhorn and slipped on a small red ribbon in 3 1/2 seconds. It required the mark set by Vera Castro, Alhambra, Calif., Wednesday. The world record of 3 1/5 seconds was set in 1940 by Mel Fenzl.

Buck Wyatt, husky cowhand from Omaha, Neb., gave a spectacular ride on a plunging Barabara bull yesterday to edge out Will Geritt of Black Diamond, Alta., by a single point. Wyatt failed 254, Jim Shouder, winner of the first go-round, slipped to third place with 247 points. Geritt and Shouder are leading in over-all points for the championship.

HIGHEST TOTAL YET

Fruit, which in the first go-round of the saddle-roping competition came out yesterday on a horse named Irish Joe for a wild ride into the top bracket of the second go-round. His 255 points was the highest recorded at the 1948 Stampede. Carl Olson of Cardston, winner of the first go-round, failed to place in the second series. However, fellow townman Frank Duce took second money with 260 points. Defending champion Jim Luke of Kin, Colo., was third—a single point behind his brother.

Johnny Phelan of Red Deer counted his 254 to retain the title of the chuckwagon championship last night when he rode a bucking horse team to top money in the fourth round of the six-round event.

Moves For Ouster

Of Mayor Renewed

MEDICINE HAT, July 9. — (CP) — Members of the Medicine Hat Property Owners' Association yesterday renewed their bid to oust Mayor W. M. Mac from office.

Late yesterday the association filed an amended recall petition with city clerk W. A. Keith. The petition, which was filed during the last 10 days, must contain evidence in the form of a petition signed by 25 per cent of those who voted in the last municipal election.

The original petition has placed in circulation by the association more than two months ago following a library dispute in the city. The dispute centered around implementation of recommendations contained in a library survey conducted by provincial library adviser Calhoun of Calgary. The survey recommended removal of several thousand volumes from the public library.

Esks' Melbye Tops Hitters With 413

Uncle Sam Interrupted His Possible Pro Career

Clarence Melbye — handyman with New Edmonton hotel Ekimkos — is one of those athletes who might have gone on to the professional heights had war not interrupted their careers.

When the 24-year-old native of McMinnville, Oregon, was still in his teens, Boston Red Sox, particularly, showed a keen interest in his chances. He was all set to hook on with the Silverton Red Sox, as a semi-pro chattel of the Beantowners, when Uncle Sam sent him the big letter.

Following Melbye in Hot Deans' latest batch of averages came Archie Wilder (Pitts), 40, Greg McEllan (Buff), 40 and Earl Choukalet (Pitts), 38.

Actually Jim Gibson, breezy Buff manager, must be looked upon as the real king of the hit men. In 43 games Gibson has gone to the plate 159 times for 58 hits and a mark of 485. He has a seven point edge on Melbye in the early season sensation who has been on the skirts—but good—for the past couple of weeks.

Hitting Stan Musical Style

Right now Melbye is pacing the hitters in Henry Roche's loop with a gaudy cist mark of 413. Agreed the former second sacker (mostly he figures in pith with Esks) has very come to the plate a time. But there's no denying he has made the most of his limited opportunities while banging away for 19 hits.

Doug Stevenson 347 and Bill Price 350 come in with the batting leaders... Price leads all in hits with 59... Doug Stevenson averages 50 points over last season, while Andy Doug Stevenson has taken 100 points.

School Bells In July?

Leo (The Lip) Durocher, somewhat deflated manager of Brooklyn's somewhat deflated Dodgers, is on record to the effect that "nice guys finish eighth."

This was the man of the world's way of deriding the idea behind the Boy Scouts and like movements among human beings which place some value on fair play, sportsmanship and the sort.

In other words Durocher believes in winning at all costs.

Fortunately there are others tied in with the Brooklyn organization who do not subscribe to the Durocher code. Among these are Howie Haak and Bob Clements, members of the Dodger scouting system who first visited our town last summer.

Last July the pair of Brooklyn talent scouts, with considerable aid from large Charley Welchel and one or two others, staged a baseball school at Renfrew Park. The entry of a major league club into the private parties in this fashion made history.

What's more the school was a huge success. More than 100 boys and young men came to sit for three days at the feet of these masters.

The valuable Haak, a longtime catcher who went as high as a short sojourn with Chicago Cubs following a fine career in the minors, and the loose-limbed Welchel, a pitcher whose arm has gone sour, unloaded at length for the eager seekers of diamond know-how.

They had come a long way to do a job. They did it up brown.

It Gives For Free

In little more than 10 days Professor Haak and his travelling companions will do it all over again at Renfrew. The call has gone out. Any boy, 15 years of age or over, is invited to sit in.

No young fellow who is really serious about a baseball career can afford to pass this up. Even those who want only to have a look at how it's done by tutors schooled in the big league way can ill afford to play truant.

Here's an opportunity which frequently costs the 'teen ager real money in the U.S. Over there ambitious youths travel many hundreds of miles in the spring, particularly to attend such such clinics as the one planned for Edmonton, starting July 21 for three days.

In the case of their Edmonton effort Haak, Welchel and associates will be quite satisfied to uncover a prospect or two. Such a happening would more than pay the shot for the expense involved.

This is the chance the scouting system of any major league organization must take. Every year thousands of kids, keen to follow in the footsteps of Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Bob Lemon and their like, are screened, as it were. The percentage in boys who 'have a chance' is low.

Summa Cum Laude

From the 1947 school four 'pupils' were signed on for berths with Dodger farms in organized baseball. Dick Lowe, with Maple Leaf juniors at the time, Paul (Cinders) Peterson, Rook, Mountain House, Dede Tufel, and Leithridge, and a boy called Whiffly from Brooks made the grade.

Lowe, Peterson and Whiffly wound up with Medford in the Far West League. Tufel also hooked on in class D at Ponca City in the KMO loop.

Still we don't think the Dodger missionaries quite came up with what was expected. One of the three graduates of the first Edmonton school was a little on the 'ancient' side, considering their limited opportunities to that point. Lowe, close to 20 years of age, was, as we remember it, the youngest of the lot.

Undoubtedly Haak would like to pick off two or three boys of 16 or 17 who have a real future. Such sprouts can still spend two or three seasons in the minors getting the polish job and still make it to the top in time to enjoy a long and profitable career.

All who come to the school are asked to bring glove, uniform and spikes. The bats, balls and so on will be supplied by the Ebbets Field canteenaries. Also they will dig down for the expenses of any boy eventually signed to a contract.

Make possible largely through the efforts of John Ducey and John Beatty, lessees of Renfrew Park, the Brooklyn school shapes up as one of those mountain-come-to-Mohammed deals.

The Brooklyn come a long way to the young men in this part of the country.

New York Pro Cracks Par in Club Open

SCARBORO GOLF CLUB, Toronto, July 9. — (CP) — Frank Commisso, professional, at Rochester, N.Y., Ironclad, Thursday won the 18-hole qualifying round of the Ontario open golf championship with a three-under-par 68.

Julius Hoot, Laval-sur-Leau, and Stan Horne, Montreal, were just back of the leaders with 73 in a tie for sixth place with five others.

Also in sixth place were E. O. Bentley, Toronto, Weston, and Don Harty, Brantford, Ont., who were tied for second among the low-scoring amateurs.

Puck-Chasing Still Holds Bill Ezinicki

TORONTO, July 9. — (CP) — Wild Bill Ezinicki, one-time bad-man of the National Hockey League, wants to continue chasing pucks for the world champion Toronto Maple Leafs as long as they'll have him but he'd also like to land a pro golf job in western Canada next year.

An visit to the Ontario open at Togo's Scarboro, Bilt, revealed why he turned professional at golf recently. Ezinicki, who has more than the prescribed 350 limit for normal visits to the United States and the extra money permitted him to compete in more tournaments.

The husky right winger missed the money distribution in the American tour but "it was great experience playing with the top notchers." His plans call for him to return to the U.S. and play in the $10,000 open at Reading, Pa. The Western United States open at Buffalo and the St. Paul, Minn. open.

One of his main hopes is to win the open tourney in Manitoba, his native province, next month. Since hockey training with the Leafs starts in September, he doubts whether he can arrange time off to participate in the Canadian open at Vancouver in September.

Hockey's hottest golfer, Ezinicki was beaten out by Frank Stronach, of Toledo, O., for the Canadian amateur title. One of his most humiliating defeats was in training at St. Catharines, last fall, when goalie Turk Broda and coach Hay Day beat him in the Leafs' team tourney.

Two All-Stars Hurt In Major Leagues

George Kell and Eddie Stanky Limp Off With Sprained Ankles

NEW YORK, July 9. — (CP) — Two men named as starting infielders in next Tuesday's all-star game play watch it from the sidelines as a result of injuries suffered Thursday in a violent day of major league activity. A third man joined the hospital parade and three others face possible fines as a result of differences with an American League umpire.

Heavy-hitting George Kell, Detroit Tiger third-baseman sprained an ankle in the eighth inning of the Detroit-St. Louis game, which the Tigers won 12-2. While the injury was not believed serious, it dented his chances of playing his position for the American League in the annual benefit at St. Louis.

Brownie pitcher Fred Sanford, who demanded unsuccessfully that an interference penalty be called on Kell in the seventh, left the game by request. Consequent heckling from the St. Louis bench resulted in banishment of Jerry Priddy, white catcher Roy Partee was sent to an early shower after a vicious out of control and strikes. Umpire Joe Papaleo landed the thumb in all three cases.

A sprained ankle also sidelined Boston second-sacker who is billed to start with the National League squad. Stanky, coupled with Bruce Edwards, Brooklyn's third-sacker, the latter is expected to be taken on a fender's choice. Edwards also retired with a sprained ankle.

Braves top Brooks. The bereaved Braves managed to turn back Brooklyn's six-game winning streak as Jimmy Russell's grand slam homer in the eighth gave them a 7-4 victory, protecting the Braves' National League lead.

Blackwell scattered seven hits and fanned 13 Cubs for his sixth win against five losses.

Cleveland Indians opened a one-game lead over Philadelphia Athletics by mauling Chicago White Sox 14-1, while the A's lost to New York Yankees 10-4.

Another casualty. The day's casualty list lengthened as Washington starter Earl Wynn stopped Burdette Stabert's liner with his ankle and had to retire in the second inning. To make matters worse, the ball caromed off for a single, scoring Bobby Doerr with the deciding run in Boston's 4-1 victory. Ted Williams closed a pair of blows for the Red Sox.

Pittsburgh Pirates lightened their load on second place in the senior loop with a 6-4 win over the third-place St. Louis Cardinals. The Pirates swept their two-game series and moved 1½ games ahead of the Red Sox.

Murphy Reports On City Hall

By Wm. "Spud" Murphy

Edmonton's growing pains continue, and the latest in a "communications" building to be erected possibly next year.

By the way, a communications building is a structure to house the fire department's radio and switchboard facilities, and similar equipment for the police department.

At present the equipment is located in the fire hall at 104 street, and at the police station.

The two-story building will cost about $100,000. It will be of concrete, brick and stone construction, and will be located in the downtown section, possibly a block west of the city hall.

Consideration is being given to the installation in the building of the 24-hour-telephone service now operated by the engineers, waterworks and electric light departments.

LOTS OF BONDS

Assets in the city's reserve fund at end of 1947 totaled $1,007,736.93. These assets consist of obligations of the Dominion of Canada, Province of Alberta and City of Edmonton. This is the technical way of saying the city holds nearly $1,000,000 of bonds issued by the three governments.

Interest at the rate of three per cent was credited on deposits with the reserve fund. Earnings of the fund in 1947 were $70,693.55 in excess of requirements.

LOTS OF DEBT

The city's debt at December 31, 1947 totaled $1,706,972.38. This is an increase during the year of $215,949.00. The total of $1,706,972.38 includes $724,503.38 for property taxes, local improvements, and $750,000 for transit system construction program.

Redemptions during 1947 totaled $1,721,216. The city redeemed $36,074 held by the city pension fund, $10,623.50 held by the Dominion government, and $25,378.50 of the debentures issued under the refunding plan.

The net debenture debt of the five approved utilities was $3,381,366.87 at December 31, 1947.

Local improvements, property taxes, accounts for $1,008,000 in excess of requirements in 1947 amounted to $12,739,863.16.

FAVORABLE ASSETS

Assets of the civic employee pension fund at December 31, 1947 totaled $1,731,000.00, an increase of $315,949.00 during the year.

Since the inception of the fund in 1932 the City of Edmonton contributions, plus interest, amount to $1,250,625.00. With such contributions of $788,875.00 have been paid in all.

In addition the city has paid $101,173.71, including interest, in excess of the city pension fund.

Civic employees payments into the fund with interest after deducting withdrawals amounted to $878,310.

The total earnings of the fund since inception in excess of requirements at December 31, 1947 were $120,203.38. Earnings in excess of requirements in 1947 amounted to $12,739,863.16.

Some Men Want To Be Just Like Sylphs Too

By Simma Milner

Women are more outspoken about their avoirdupois than men.

But oversized men do worry about it.

Since I started my doctor's office six days ago, I have received hundreds of phone calls and more than 100 letters from women.

They tell me: "I took all day and nibble and taste... I just cried... I'm always hungry... I'm too fat."

White women talk loud about their overweight, men silently seek help in many cases.

There are a good number of men on reducing diets under the same doctor who has been helping me in my battle of the bulge.

Several times during conversations with women, the "sisters" make me think they are not talking for themselves but for their over-weight brother.

The lone man to consult me in this diet was a prominent musician and a philosopher. He claims the trouble with the world today is that the people "overeat and under-think."

In the six days of my diet I have eaten 3073 calories. I am entitled to 3,600-3,800 a day.

I consumed 1,388 calories Thursday. Here is what I ate:

Breakfast—two tablespoons skim milk (55 calories)—one teaspoon sugar (100) one quarter cup skim milk (55) black coffee (0).

Lunch—one-half cup soup (45) four ounces roast beef (100) mashed turnip (35) skim milk (90).

Dinner—two boiled eggs (160) the sliced toast (15) one-half teaspoon butter (50) cabbage salad (25) milk (90).

In between meals—skim milk (90) orange (80).

Eaters-Out Hit Again; Prices Up

Some items on Edmonton restaurant menus are up in price between five and 10 percent, it was learned today.

Edmonton restaurant men have raised meat items in price, but not contemplating any overall menu price increase. The Bulletin was told by officials of the city branch of the Canadian Restaurant Association.

John Merrick, of Merrick's Fine Foods, and secretary of the local C.R.A., said:

"There has been a slight rise in some things... but Edmontonians would notice it at all." He said the price increases have been "very slight."

He stated that no overall price increase is contemplated unless food prices continue to mount.

Chris Diamond, manager of John's Cafe, and local director of the C.R.A., said that the menu price increase ranges between five and 10 percent, mostly on meat items.

Salads, fish, and other items, will remain at present prices.

Individual restaurants have been allowed to use their own discretion on menu prices.

Beware 'The Dips' Is Police Advice

Coming of the Fair
Brings Timely Warning

By Pat McEwen

You can help a pickpocket pick your pocket—but don't!

With the approach of fair week, the only time of the year when Edmonton is seriously warned by "dips," the Sgt. J. E. Peterson warned today that most victims of pocket thefts practically hand their wallets to pickpockets.

Sgt. Peterson knows pickpockets. He has watched them at work, and how the public unconsciously helps them.

UNUSPECTING

By the first day of the fair, the pickpocketing criminals have strategically stationed themselves near the main gate under the sign that warns the public to "Beware of Pickpockets."

"Strategically, because in a minute the victim will pass that spot. Here he comes now, Mr. Average Man, his wife and the young ones. They're all set for a big day at the fair, and Pop's packing a lot of cash in his wallet because he wants to show the family he's no slouch when it comes to giving them a good time."

They pass the pickpocket sign, and the little warning sign that it gives him a nudge.

"Dear, is your wallet safe?"

DEAD END. Pop, dazzled as the pickpocket expert he reaches for his hip pocket or his wallet.

Now that Fast Fingers the Dip knows the location of the valuable, he follows the family to the refreshment stand or some other crowded place where Pop is likely to be buying tickets.

Here he rubs against his victim. Justifies him, treads on his foot in a similar way, scratches his leg while his nimble fingers do the work.

Big Staff Handles Robinson's

A staff of 17 is employed at the new premises of Fane-Robinson Auto Body Repairs and Painting shop which officially opens for business tomorrow.

Of this number, four are members of one family—the Robinsons—who own and operate the firm. General manager of the business is George Robinson, a veteran of some 30 years in the auto body repair trade in Edmonton. He is ably assisted by his three sons: George Jr., who is shop foreman;

20 years experience in the game, is also mighty proud of his boys.

HIGH PRAISE
He doesn't mind words, in his praise for them. "All I can say is they know their business," he replied when asked how the boys fared under his tutelage.

Cars, trucks and jeeps, have been rebuilt and repainted by the Fane-Robinson staff.

Some cars following mishaps have been considered a total loss, but consultation with shop "experts" has resulted in their being restored to former shape and naturalness.

"We've encountered some pretty difficult jobs, cars coming in here, twisted like a corkscrew, but they've gone out just as good as new," said George Jr. proudly.

The new Fane-Robinson premises, he feels, will fully meet with the expanding business the firm has encountered during the recent years.

"If not well building again," he concluded.

and upholsterer, Charlie, who is in charge of the paint shop and Jim, who is office manager.

Thirteen others, 10 bodymen, an upholsterer and trimmer, two apprentices and a helper, comprise the staff. They are: Walter Popik, Nick Maslar, Alan Huseh, John Herbert, Joe Johnson, Art Harvey, Mike Hudema, Don Hall, John Barlett, Cecil Theroux, Bill Crew, Ed Zucawell and Pete Koux.

NEW HOME OF FANE ROBINSON Limited which officially opens for business tomorrow. Erected at cost of $25,000, new auto body repairs and painting plant is modern in design and construction and is capable of accommodating 20 cars.

Robinson Family Opens Modern, New Building

A record of steady progress has been shown by the Fane-Robinson Auto Body Repairs and Painting establishment, which officially opens its new home at 10173 106 Street tomorrow.

Erected at the cost of some $25,000, the building is of reinforced concrete and brick construction, and has been equipped to render first class service to its customers, and at the same time give its employees ideal working conditions.

A further expansion of $5,000 is being undertaken shortly.

This addition will house a new paint room, capable of accommodating five cars, and a new upholstering department.

The opening of this establishment is the outgrowth of 20 years of progress in Edmonton.

George Robinson, owner and manager of the business, first opened shop in 1919. His first venture was the Edmonton Auto Top and Body Works, which was situated near what is now the Cenotaph.

BUYS OUT FANE
In 1935 as better times began to emerge from the depression, George Robinson bought out the interests of Fane and operated an establishment at 10255 102 Street, where he did business until 1942.

Business continued to flourish and after two successive moves, necessitated by expanding business, the firm now firmly established in new and modern headquarters.

The establishment is fitted with all the latest devices required for expert body and fender work on cars, trucks and jeeps.

Spacious and modern in design the premises can accommodate 20 cars at one time and when the new paint shop and upholstering plant is completed, car accommodation will be increased to 25.

The building is 50 feet by 130 feet, and has been equipped with all the latest fixtures and supplies.

The offices, which are located to the south of the main entrance, shop foreman George Jr. said, "We make fair appraisals on all our work and carry them through to the letter. Satisfied customers mean better business and our progress has been chiefly due to the pleasant dealing we've had with our patrons."

Brother Charlie, who is in charge of the paint shop, has 17 years of experience in this line to his credit. He is recognized, according to local automobile men, as "one of the best in the city."

George Jr. in addition to being shop foreman is an expert car upholsterer, a job he has been doing for 14 years.

Nam, the younger of the three, is office manager.

All three brothers trained in their father's shop since graduating from school, and each claim they know the business "from the ground up."

CCF Rallying Forces For All-Out Campaign

The big guns are swinging into action on the CCF political front, as the rumored election month of August draws nearer.

With labor already backing the CCF, it was learned today that Thomas McClell, of Calgary, regional representative of the Canadian Congress of Labor, who has recently named CCF political action chief for the province, will arrive in Edmonton Friday to lay election plans for Northern Alberta.

Elmer E. Roper reiterated today that labor will do its campaign for the CCF.

Thursday Mr. Roper announced that M. J. Caldwell, MP, national leader of the CCF, will talk part in Alberta's election campaign.

Mr. Caldwell will speak at "evening meetings" throughout the province, but he will not be present at any pending announcement of actual election date by Premier Ernest Manning.

Earlier this week, Lester E. Inglis, Alberta's national representative for the CCF party, arrived in Edmonton.

While he is here on holiday, Mr. Inglis will assist the CCF party's campaigning during the summer.

Mr. Inglis is former provincial representative in the legislature for the CCF, and was a practicing lawyer here. He is a graduate of Alberta University.

Premier Douglas of Saskatchewan is expected to take part in CCF campaigning later this summer, but no announcement has been made by the CCF party as yet.

Mr. Roper told The Bulletin today that the CCF will not call "all but one or two" of Alberta's 57 constituencies.

One that definitely will not be contested is Banff-Calgary riding, where the CCF party has been defeated in the last election.

Arthur V. W. Roper, independent Socialist member who has been elected to his party's ranks a year and one-half ago.

Mr. Roper has been very cooperative with us in the house, and it is not likely to be repeated by any other CCF member.

So far the CCF has nominated 10 members in the Blue and White line.

J. E. Cook, provincial president of the CCF party, left Edmonton today for an organizational tour of the Peace River district.

He will attend Peace River nominating convention on July 15, and Grand convention, for which the CCF party has been elected.

Mr. Roper attended a rally in the Peace River district, Thursday night at which the four provincial constituency members in the federal riding of Wetaskiwin, Lacombe, Leduc and

Freak Crash Injures Pair Does Damage

Two men were injured, a city truck and trailer damaged, and a trolley wire pole almost demolished in a freak accident at Jasper avenue near 84 street Thursday afternoon.

Robert Walden, 1213 87 street, and Stanley Marston, 1042 98 street, were released from hospital after receiving treatment for facial cuts sustained in the accident.

The men were riding in a city engineering department truck, operated by Walden, which was pulled over by the city department in sidewalk caution.

According to police reports, the trailer bracket broke loose, and the momentum of the roller caused it to crash into the left rear of the truck.

Forced to the right, the truck crashed into a trolley wire pole, which broke off near its base, and fell across the left front of the truck.

The front of the truck was demolished by the falling pole, the rear fender was damaged by the impact of the roller, and the rear of the truck was crushed.

Marston was taken to the Royal Alexandra Hospital by Jack Ray's ambulance. Walden received medical attention at home.

Things Never Dull For City Pharmacist

Helping many ailing persons from the far corners of the world to recover is becoming a regular occurrence with an Edmonton druggist.

And it's all because he takes the time and interest to fill unusual prescriptions in his Jasper avenue pharmacy.

The druggist is William D. Goldberg, proprietor of La Parissienne Drug, who has been in business in Edmonton for 26 years.

It is so far from odd for him to receive up to six or seven prescriptions a month, to be filled for persons needing medicine in Europe or other far away countries.

That it is odd to find a prescription as easy to fill as one made by a local doctor.

THREE REQUESTS

Already this week Mr. Goldberg has had requests for three prescriptions for a young Jewish boy in Romania, suffering from tuberculosis.

Most recent one was brought into his drug store Wednesday by a friend of Mr. Goldberg's.

He was unable to have it filled in that country and sent it to him.

"I am going to fill it and send it to him," Mr. Goldberg said.

He has also received requests for fill prescriptions for persons in Europe, and another in Germany.

THAT L. Nicholas Wispienski, upon receipt of another in Germany, to W. Wispienski, to supply and having been received by the latter, to be sent to the extent of $100 per month until the amount is paid in full.
